ROOTS: The foundations of El Celler de Can Roca, the 2nd World's Best Restaurant

The recipes that reveal the roots of El Celler de Can Roca, the second best restaurant in the world, also available to English speakers in electronic version for Kindle

The celebrated restaurant El Celler de Can Roca, led by the prestigious chef Joan Roca, is the number two among the 50 best restaurants in the world, according to the ranking The World's 50 Best Restaurants, published by Restaurant Magazine this week.

Its roots, the traditional Catalan cuisine, have been revealed in the book ROOTS. Essential Catalan cuisine according to El Celler de Can Roca, written by Joan Roca and aimed to the English readers and also available in electronic format (Kindle version). The title gathers more than 120 recipes from among those his mother, Montserrat, has always prepared at the Can Roca restaurant in Girona, where he began his professional training. From the fried calamari to the delicious crema catalana, as well as the festival cannelloni and the fish suquet, the recipes comprise a small tribute to traditional Catalan gastronomy, the ROOTS for that of El Celler de Can Roca.

The recipes are explained in a straightforward fashion for the inexperienced cook and complemented by interesting observations about the different products, preparations, versions and presentations of each dish.

The book is on sale throughout Spain, by telephone (+34 93 184 09 60), by e-mail (pedidos@libbooks.es) and through the web page of Libbooks. The electronic version is on sale at Amazon. The credits and images of the book can be viewed and downloaded in our press room.
